From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday is the 11th Sunday of the year for the Church in what the Church calls Ordinary Time, not because it reflects every day life, but because we are not in a particular season like Easter or Christmas in which the Church celebrates a major season or event in the life of Christ. We also celebrate Father's Day this weekend and are appreciative of all the dedicated fathers we have here at Saint Mary's. A father's role is no small responsibility. They must be like God, our father, ruling and guiding us in a very loving and compassionate way. In today's society, this can be no easy task, as many mothers and fathers often realize. It is truly only through the heart and mind of God our Father and his Son our Lord Jesus Christ that fathers today can fulfill this task.

In the world we have spiritual fathers as well. For example, on the 24th of June we will be visited by the Fathers of the Carmelite Mission to speak about how in some ways they are not only spiritual fathers to the less fortunate, but also attend to the corporal needs of those they serve in many foreign countries. They will be here to make their annual mission appeal, which happens throughout the Archdiocese in order to help them in their mission efforts. We will have a special collection that day for them. (Envelopes for the collection, marked as "Cooperative Mission Appeal", may be found behind the pews in the back of the church). May the love of God our Father be the motivating instrument by which all fathers love and care for their children. May all fathers including spiritual fathers have a blessed and joyful day, expressed by the respect and love given to them on this special day.

Peace,
Fr. Enie

New Energies Initiative

The Rosary Societies of St. Mary's Mount Carmel and Holy Family will be conducting a "Half-way to Christmas" campaign June 23rd and 24th in which they will be collecting white underwear and white socks (any adult size) for the homeless and will benefit St. Lucy's shelter in Jersey City.

Please bring NEW packs of white underwear and socks to church on those days and leave them in the bins in the vestibule of the Church.

Carmelite Missions Special Collection

Next weekend (June 23 and 24), a special collection will be taken for the missionary work done by Carmelite Fathers in many parts of the underdeveloped world, especially in Peru, Brazil, Mexico, Indonesia, the Philippines and Zimbabwe, Africa. (Envelopes are available today as well as next weekend, behind the pews at the back of the church, marked as "Cooperative Mission Appeal").

In Sicuani, Peru, in one of the most remote areas of the Southern Andes Mountains, Carmelites care for an entire diocese. The Ordinary is Bishop Michael La Fay, O. Carm. His people live in the midst of extreme poverty. 90% suffer from malnutrition, 80% have TB and one out of three children die before his/her first birthday. The life expectancy of everyone is only 35 years.

Carmelites in Sicuani and in those other places must feed the hungry, attend the sick, provide schools and other service to their pain-filled people, as they proclaim the Good News of God's loving kindness.

Jesus promised an eternal reward to those who would give even a cup of cold water to the poor in His Name. Your generosity in the collection for Carmelite Missions next weekend will allow Bishop La Fay and so many other Carmelites to give their people much more than a cup of cold water. The Lord will indeed reward you – as only He can!

See What Good You Can Do!

If you have eyeglasses you no longer use, why not donate them to Eyes for the Needy. It's as easy as dropping them off in the collection basket in the vestibule of the Church. Thank you for your generosity and for helping those in need.

Parish Collection for Sunday, June 10

Thank you for your donation of $7,953.

Holy Father's Prayer Intention for June

That believers may recognize in the Eucharist the living presence of the Risen One who accompanies them in daily life.

RETIRED???

Looking for some way to assist our parish? Why not consider becoming a server at funeral masses. We are in need of men and women who would be available in the morning hours to assist the priest during funeral liturgies. Training is provided. If interested, please call the Parish Center at 973-235-1100 or fill out the information below and put it in the collection basket.
