From the Pastor's Desk

This weekend, the Carmelite Fathers will be here for Mission Sunday. Each year throughout the Diocese, priest, religious brothers and sisters come to the Archdiocesan Churches to make an appeal for the parishes to assist them in their ministries to the underprivileged throughout the world. This weekend as we have previously announced, Fr. Jose Cilia will be speaking to us about the plight of those that the Carmelite Missions serve, and their need for our assistance in the work they do, in areas such as Zimbabwe (Africa), Peru, Mexico, and Brazil. The generosity of our parishioners will enable them to preach the Gospel as well as help to feed the hungry, care for the sick, open and conduct schools and orphanages, in addition to other services that lessen the pain of the desperately poor in the church that calls them to serve.

Saint Mary's has always been attentive to the needs of the less fortunate and I am confident that the caring and loving people of Saint Mary's will hear the appeal of Fr. Jose just as they have heard the voice of Jesus in the Gospel Matthew:

For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; 36naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.' 37"Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink? 38'And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You? 39'When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' 40"The King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.'

Matthew chapter 25 verse 35-40

As Blessed Teresa of Calcutta reminds us to hear and see the cry of the poor especially in the poorest of the poor, let us be true children of God and attend to the needs of brothers and sisters, and know in doing so we are attending to Christ.

Peace, and blessings,
Fr. Ernie

Carmelite Missions Special Collection

Today, Fr. Jose Cilia will speak about Carmelite Missions. As mentioned last Sunday, priests, sisters and brothers of the Order proclaim the Good News of the Gospel among some of today's poorest people. They serve especially in Peru, Brazil, Mexico, Zimbabwe (Africa) and the Philippines.

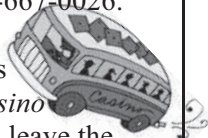

Your generosity today will allow them to feed the hungry, attend the sick, conduct schools, orphanages, and provide other services that lessen the pain of desperately poor people the Church calls them to serve.

Your offerings will be received in a special collection today (Please use the envelopes in the back of the church marked "Cooperative Mission Appeal"). The Lord Himself will reward your generosity!
