From the Pastor's Desk

Greetings from the Vatican,

The last few weeks have been exciting, busy and emotional in many ways. Not only have our classes here at the Institute continued but we have had conversations with cardinals, bishops and the press staying here at the NAC. We have had the opportunity to talk and pray with many of the American Cardinals. One of the Lenten practices here at the NAC is Mass every morning at a station church (churches that were stops for pilgrims coming to Rome for Lent), many of which date from the 2nd through the 4th Century and many of which the saints themselves attended or said Mass at. You really can't enter a church in Rome without finding a body or major relic of a saint or Pope. It has been a great blessing. We have studied art, architecture and Church governance as just a few of the topics; from Popes to Caravaggio, Michelangelo, Bernini, etc.

In addition to all this, we have had the opportunity to pray and offer Mass. I have felt blessed to offer Mass and pray for those who have asked, especially in places normally not available to priests. I was edified the other day to stand at St. Peter's grave, with his bones present and visible, and to pray for all of you. As I write this, the conclave has begun and we suspect will last to the end of the week. We pray that by then we will have a new Pope. This morning at 7:30, the cardinals left the NAC, and as is the tradition we lined the Via Pinna (the pine road, because it is lined with the tallest pine trees) to clap off the cardinals as they left for the Conclave. It was a very inspiring and emotional moment. The old saying is that those who go in a Pope come out a Cardinal. So that being said, many have questioned who are the top choices. No one can say for sure because once that door closes all things change. My guess is as good as yours. We all will learn when we see the white smoke. Tonight the smoke was black as expected. Tomorrow brings another day. We are just as anxious as you. With all the news media now in Rome, the candidates change daily, and each day someone different emerges as a papabili. But that is over; now the true work begins for the cardinals. Let's pray that the Holy Spirit inspires the cardinals to elect the right man to lead the Church forward in these difficult times. Know that I continue to pray for all of you and your intentions. I end with the hymn and prayer that the cardinals and the Sistine choir sang before the actual conclave began.

Veni, creator Spiritus mentes tuorum visita,
imple superna gratia, quae tu creasti pectora.

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
and in our hearts take up Thy rest;
come with Thy grace and heav'nly aid,
to fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

Peace, Fr. Ernie

Operation Rice Bowl

Putting Your Sacrifice to Work for Others

We invite our parish community to join in this Lenten program of giving. Operation Rice Bowl materials are available at the entrances of the Church and in the Parish Office. One simple way to participate is to put the money that you would have used to purchase your Lenten sacrifice (candy, junk food, soda) into the Operation Rice Bowl. Your Lenten sacrifice will become not just something that helps you, but also helps those in need.

Donations are due by Wed., April 10, 2013. Please make all donations in the form of a check. Do not return the actual Rice Bowl or coins. Make checks payable to: St. Mary’s Church and mark Operation Rice Bowl on the check and envelope.

Archbishop’s Annual Appeal

The Archdiocese of Newark’s Office of Human Concerns works to spread the Gospel’s challenge of our need to care for the poor and the marginalized within our society. It does this by making presentations in parishes, schools and religious education programs about the importance of Catholic Social Teaching, specific social issues and the importance of service in the life of the Church.

The Office of Human Concerns also works with youth groups from both the Archdiocese of Newark and nationally who are looking for service projects and an opportunity to reflect on their experiences. During the last two summers, over 80 young people from around the country will come to the Archdiocese to serve the poor with service projects in our shelters, parishes and soup kitchens.

This Office creates a greater awareness of the important social issues of the day such as poverty, climate change and fair housing by providing information to parishes and practical ways to be involved in making positive changes to the world.

Thank you for your support of the Archbishop’s Annual Appeal, which makes the Office of Human Concerns a reality!

Physician Assisted Suicide – What is at Stake?

Did you know? New Jersey is poised to become the fourth state with legalized physician-assisted suicide. Most states (and most countries) believe that legalizing physician-assisted suicide would place in great jeopardy those who are suffering and vulnerable.
