From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and sisters in Christ,

In the wake of Sandy and the recent nor'easter, our communities are still recovering and suffering. We fortunately have not suffered as great a devastation as many of our fellow citizens have in our southern communities. We give thanks to God for our community and pray for those severely affected throughout the northeast. Many of our parishioners and staff who have family or houses down the shore are amongst those severely affected. It is in times like these that our Catholic Christian faith and principles must shine.

We hear these words of Christ from the Gospels:

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Beatitudes (5:7) from Matthews's gospel

And when Jesus was addressing the crowds he said:

for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, (Matthew 36), I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me.

And the people responded to him:

'Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink?

And Jesus Said:

'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.

In response to the Archdiocese request, and Christ's command, Saint Mary's will hold a voluntary collection on Sundays, November 25 and December 2, to assist our brothers and sisters in need through the Archdiocese and the surrounding areas. This collection will be distributed to those in need by the Archdiocese and our parish. If any of our parishioners have been greatly affected by the recent storms and are in need, please feel free to speak to me to see if there is any way we might be able to help you. May our merciful and loving God, who is the only one that can truly console us, strengthen us and lead us as we begin to get back on our feet.

God's peace and blessings,
Fr. Ernie

Presentation by Irish-American Artist at Seton Hall

On Mon., Nov. 19 at 8:00 p.m., Seton Hall University's Pirates of Irish Persuasion & Extraction (PIPE) will sponsor a presentation by artist Colette Murphy, who will discuss her artwork that focuses on her experience as an immigrant to America. A native of Ireland, Murphy studied at Hunter College, New York, and graduated with a Master's Degree in Fine Art in 2008. After that she commenced studio work in Brooklyn and her exceptional skill was quickly noticed by astute art collectors, and she was selected for inclusion and illustration in The Open Studios Press publication New American Paintings, 2011. She won the Tony Smith Award in 2009 and the Estelle Levy Award for painting in 2008. Since then her paintings have been exhibited in New York, London, Berlin and Venice and works have been purchased for private and public collections internationally. Her works reach back to the artist early childhood memories of her homeland. The images in these works create a certain tension that evokes power struggles and war. This event, which is free and open to the public, will take place in the Beck Rooms on the ground floor of Walsh Library on the South Orange campus of Seton Hall University. For further information regarding the event, please contact Dr. Maura Harrington at maura.harrington@shu.edu or 201-463-5967.
